

INDIAN TECH ICON AWARDS 2025

NOC (No Objection Certificate) for Video Release & Social Media Publishing

To Whom It May Concern,

I, the undersigned, hereby grant my full and irrevocable consent to the organizers of the Indian Tech Icon Awards 2025, including but not limited to Techies4Tech.ai, Women Innovators in Tech, and Showman, to:

1. Record, edit, and use video content featuring my participation in the Indian Tech Icon Spotlight podcast and all related teaser/promo videos, interviews, and content created for the purpose of the Indian Tech Icon Awards 2025.
2. Release and publish the above content on all public and private platforms including but not limited to social media (LinkedIn, YouTube, Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, etc.), websites, and media channels.
3. Display the master video, which may feature my visuals, voice, or reference to my achievements, during the live award ceremony and on digital platforms thereafter.
4. Tag my official social handles when releasing videos or promotions, and permit me to tag Indian Tech Icon Awards, Techies4Tech.ai, Women Innovators in Tech, Showman, other partner companies and organizations involved in Indian Tech Icon Awards in all personal and public sharing of the content.
5. Confirm that I have reviewed and approved the final versions of the videos where I am featured, and I have no objection to their release and usage as outlined above.

I understand that this content may be used for promotional, documentation, marketing, and branding purposes and may be shared across various regions and media formats.

I also declare that:

- I do not hold any copyright claims or objection to the content being shared publicly.
- I shall not hold the organizers or their partners liable for any future use of the content.
- This consent is granted voluntarily and without any financial claim or obligation.
